¿SABIAS QUÉ?

Las reglas Incoterms se han utilizado tradicionalmente en los contratos de compraventa internacional en los que la mercancía atraviesa fronteras nacionales. En varias zonas del mundo, sin embargo, las áreas comerciales, como la Unión Europea, han provocado que los trámites fronterizos entre los diferentes países sean menos significativos. En consecuencia, el subtítulo de las reglas Incoterms 2010 reconoce formalmente que pueden aplicarse tanto a los contratos de compraventa internacional como a lo nacional.
